

8. A student will be permitted to submit only one application under the FAAC Scheme at a point of time. The maximum limit of fund given to any student including both national and international conference/workshop stands revised to 1.5 lakhs. However, for attending conferences within India, the limit will be Rs. 10,000 in each instance. Further, application will be considered depending on the availability of funds under the scheme. Dearness Allowance (DA) will be paid up to a limit of USD 50 or equivalent per day (for conferences/workshops outside India) upon the production of actual bills of expenditure only for the duration of the conference or up to a maximum of 5 days. For conferences/workshops within India, DA will be paid as per the entitlement upon the production of actual bills of expenditure only for the duration of the conference or up to a maximum of 5 days.