

Termination

The Senate may terminate the academic programme of a student due to misconduct or inadequate academic performance (as detailed in respective course curricula). A student can also be terminated when his/her academic progress toward the degree has virtually ceased. Appeal against Termination A student whose programme is terminated may appeal to the Chairperson, Senate, for re-instatement in the programme. In cases of termination due to inadequate academic performance, the student should clearly explain causes for the poor performance, including why those causes will not adversely affect his/her performance in the future. The Senate shall take a final decision after considering all the available inputs. However, the Senate may not entertain any further appeal(s) for review unless substantial additional information is brought to its notice. Appeals against termination for reinstatement may not be entertained after a period specified in the termination letter. If reinstated, the student will be placed on Academic Probation.
