

6.7 Short Module Courses

In addition to the courses that run for an entire semester, short module courses (of one or two credits) may also be offered. Students will be permitted to register for such courses at the time of registration/preregistration.