

6.8 Registration for an Academically Deficient Student

An academically deficient student is one who has either not registered or has registered and failed in course(s) of previous semester(s). The registration of such a student may be recommended to DoAA by Convener DUGC/DPGC of the concerned Department in such a manner that as many backlog courses, as possible, are included.